Your Complete Grants Management Solution

Transforming Grantmaking — Again

Your organisation's mission is to make an impact through giving - not to carry out administrative tasks. However you still rely on myriad administrative tasks and processes to operate. Inefficiencies such as manual, disconnected processes not only waste time, they make it harder to pull information together and evaluate results.

For more than 30 years, Blackbaud has been helping organisations streamline and connect the processes that support effective giving. With our experience informing everything we do, Blackbaud maintains your system and protects your data. GIFTS Online is ready for you when you need it, but there's no software to install, maintain or upgrade. Not only does it separate the benefits of technology from the hassle, GIFTS Online delivers compelling total cost of ownership benefits to organisations of virtually any size.

Tailored for Grants Management

GIFTS Online was developed by grantmaking technology experts to meet the needs of giving organisations, large and small. Small organisations benefit from a scalable, state-of-the-art infrastructure that would otherwise be cost prohibitive, and large organisations can shift away from supporting expensive hardware systems.

Unlike some solutions, GIFTS Online doesn't force you to adapt your giving workflows to technologies originally intended for other types of processes. In fact, because GIFTS Online is highly configurable, it can support a variety of workflows, and it can adapt to changes in your processes. As your organisation evolves, GIFTS Online scales to meet your needs.

Start Quickly for Fast Results

GIFTS Online comes with a turnkey set-up process, so your organisation does not need to devote significant time or resources to adopting the solution. A dedicated implementation specialist sets up GIFTS Online to match your processes. With an understanding of grantmaking enriched by years of experience working with giving organisations, our team members collaborate with you to configure the solution to support your unique needs.

Whether your organisation is new to grants management technology or is migrating from an existing software-based solution, we make adopting GIFTS Online fast and easy. You get started quickly - and see results immediately.

Focus on Giving - Not IT

Once you get started, our dedicated technical support team is there for you. And behind the scenes, a seasoned team is working to continually enhance and advance the solution. Best of all, you never have to install anything to benefit from our continuous investment in research and development. Blackbaud maintains GIFTS Online for you - even your configuration. Regular backups and offsite storage of duplicate copies protect your data, keeping historical grant information safe in the event of anything from a lost laptop to a catastrophic fire.

Connect All Stakeholders to your Giving

With GIFTS Online, integrated, web-based processes make it easy to enhance every aspect of grantmaking. Internal and external stakeholders go online to connect to your processes. Applicants use intuitive, web-based tools to complete applications, file progress reports and get the information they need. Staff members and reviewers focus on making smart choices, not managing a mountain of paper. Automated workflows keep processes moving. Board and family members access personalised homepages that visually summarise the data they need to see. Detailed grant tracking and reporting enables organisation leaders to make better, more informed decisions.

The result: More efficient, meaningful and collaborative giving.
